

3.

The Sydney Morning Herald

Tuesday 5 November 1912:

DEATHS

CAMPBELL.—November 4, 1912, at his residence, Station-street, Harris Park, Parramatta, Niel Campbell, in his 80th year, born Isle of Tiree, Scotland; 74 years resident of Parramatta.

[transcription by Jean Little from <http://www.trove.nla.gov.au/>]

Additional notes:

Brother of Jessie Hughes (11) and Jane Campbell (13).

Niel, son of Archibald Campbell & Mary Campbell of Scarinish, Tiree, was born on 11 April 1832. The parish register lists 5 children born in Tiree to Archibald & Mary Campbell:

Jane, 1828
Duncan, 1830
Niel, 1832
Janet, 1834
Mary, 1837

The Campbell family emigrated to Australia on the bounty ship British King, which sailed from Tobermory, Mull, on 28 October 1838 and arrived in Sydney on 28 February 1839.